AFFIDAVIT TO EXPLAIN PROTRACTED FOREIGN RESIDENCE AND TO OVERCOME PRESUMPTION OF EXPATRIATION.

FOR NATIVE* AND NATURALIZED CITIZENS.

An American citizen who has resided abroad for many years is required, when making application for consular registration or a Departmental or Emergency passport, to sign an affidavit stating the cause of his protracted foreign residence; his present ties of family, property, or business with the United States; how often he has made visits to the United States; whether he pays the American Income Tax, if subject thereto; and what intention he has of returning to the United States permanently to reside. A naturalized citizen may overcome the presumption of expatriation by presenting satisfactory evidence establishing the following facts: (a) That his residence abroad is solely or principally as a representative of American trade and commerce, and that he intends eventually to return to the United States permanently to reside; or (b) that his residence abroad is in good faith for reasons of health or for education, and that he intends eventually to return to the United States to reside; or (c) that some unforeseen and controlling exigency beyond his power to foresee has prevented his carrying out a bona fide intention to return to the United States within the time limited by law, and that it is his intention to return to the United States immediately upon the removal of the preventing cause.

I, Sesme Condos, a ~~native~~ ^{naturalized} and loyal American citizen, do solemnly swear that I ceased to reside in the United States on or about the _____ day of November, 1919; that I have since resided temporarily at _____; and that I arrive in Sparta, Greece, where I am now temporarily residing, on the _____ day of November 1919, my reasons for such residence being as follows:

My father died and I came to settle his estate, now my husband came to take us back but as I can not have an emergency passport, I must wait until I get this passport.

Since establishing a residence abroad I have made the following visits to the United States:

none

I have ~~never~~ ^{never} not since my naturalization as an American citizen been naturalized, taken an oath of allegiance, or voted as a foreign citizen or subject, or in any way held myself out as such.

I maintain the following ties of family, business, and property with the United States:

My husband is working in Stamford Ct.

I ~~do~~ ^{do not} pay the American Income Tax^b at _____ Vice Consul of the United States of America.

(See Instructions printed on reverse side)

* This includes persons born abroad of native or naturalized American Citizens, as well as persons born in the United States.
b Applicant should state whether or not he is subject to this tax, and, if not, why. (This tax is levied on single persons whose total incomes aggregate $1,000 or more per annum, and on married persons whose total incomes aggregate $2,000 or more per annum. It applies to incomes derived from foreign sources as well as to incomes derived from sources in the United States.)
c This statement should be as clear and definite as possible.
d An applicant who is residing abroad for the benefit of his health should submit a certificate of a reputable physician.

OPINION OF OFFICER TAKING AFFIDAVIT.

(The officer who takes the affidavit should state definitely below whether, in his opinion, the affiant has satisfactorily explained his protracted foreign residence or is in a position to overcome the presumption of expatriation. In doing so he should consider first, whether the facts recited constitute the true cause of the foreign residence, and second, whether they are sufficient under the established rules to entitle him to protection as an American citizen. He should sign his name and add his title below the statement of his opinion.)

11
The affiant and her three children came to Greece with a Greek passport. I believe that her action in traveling with such a document was due entirely to ignorance.

I believe that the presumption of expatriation has been overcome and the foreign residence satisfactorily explained.

Vice Consul of the United States of America.
