

IN THE CRIMINAL COURT.

Mistrial Entered in Case Against Nick Condos.

In the criminal district court yesterday Nick Condos was tried on the charge of unlawfully carrying a dirk, but the jury was unable to reach a verdict. Judge Campbell after allowing the jury to deliberate over the case, discharged them and entered a mistrial.

The two cases against Jack Morris, who is charged with unlawfully carrying a pistol, were continued until next term of the court on application of the defendant.

The cases set for yesterday were disposed of in the following manner:

Hattie Seckler, felony theft; not guilty.

J. E. Morris (two cases), unlawfully carrying pistol; continued by defendant.

Nick Condos, aggravated assault; passed to April 8.

Nick Condos, carrying a dirk; mistrial.

Tom Lichtenstine, unlawfully carrying pistol, passed to April 8.

John Taylor, unlawfully carrying pistol; passed to April 8.

Ben Lauderdale, robbery by assault; passed to April 8.

Cases set for today:

Herbert Stone, attempt at robbery.

Son Mitchell and John Hays, assault to murder.

Lee Tuggle and Grover Reynolds, forgery.

Lee Tuggle and Frank Veazey (two cases), forgery.

Lee Tuggle (three cases), forgery.

W. L. Perkins, assault to murder.

W. L. Perkins, pistol case.

Clipped By:

philiphayes

Sun, Mar 25, 2018