

Jean

WIN AWARDS—Troop 558 of Our Lady of the Assumption School, Atlanta, Georgia, awarded Curved Bars and Senior Pins to the following: front row, Jean Condos, Lynda Schladerhauffen, Juanita Jaeger and Annette Penhallègon; second row, Mary Margaret Hotard, Maraul Houfek, Leader Mrs. Glenn H. Penhallègon, Patricia Reardon, and Maureen McGovern; last row, Virginia Heitzman, Louise Trott, Mary Nerney, and Teresa Jones. Missing from the picture are the assistant leader, Mrs. James L. McGovern, and Susan Schladerhauffen.

e econ-
ing es-
s of so-
e, con-
which

in the n which
uch con-
astrophic.
ntal laws
rohibiting
to para-
by work-
ect.

ker is not
his means
firms have
ement com-
problems as
ally trained
ee that social
racts are ful-
es go be-
ngle firm,
e to seek
olu-

create trouble for us, may be very human but is not just.

Spain has been a pioneer in international law bas-les Would

ism and their brave ardent temper-ment, need more than other peoples to have accepted standards of discipline, authority and order. When these standards have existed, Spain has arisen to truly