SURROGATE'S COURT :: WESTCHESTER COUNTY

----- X

In the Matter of the Transfer
Tax upon the Estate of 1929 1932

ANNIE D. YERKS,

Deceased.

----- X

SIR;

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that upon the annexed petition of George Oakley Yerks, Executor of the above estate, the undersigned will move this Court at a Special Term thereof to be held at the County Court House, White Plains, New York on the 16 day of June, 1931, or as soon thereafter as counsel can be heard for an Order declaring exempt from taxes under the laws relating to taxable transfers of property, the property of which the above decedent died ceased and possessed, and for such other and further relief as to this Court may seem just and proper.

Dated: Port Chester, N. Y.

June 3, 1931.

Yours, etc.,

PERRY D. DUNN
Attorney for Executor
Office and P. O. Address
125 North Main Street
Port Chester, N. Y.

To: Edgar Hershberg
Acting Attorney for New York State
Transfer Tax Commission
80 Center Street
New York City, N. Y.

Fourth: That the petitioner is the husband of the above named decedent, that he is conversant with her affairs, that he has made diligent search for property, real, personal and mixed, of every kind, nature and description, left by decedent in this state or elsewhere, and that he has been able to discover only that mentioned in this petition.

Petitioner verily believes that said decedent left no real estate in this State, or any interest in any, nor any personal property of any description, or any interest in any in this State or elsewhere, nor any life insurance, nor any interest in any deceased person's estate other than that in this petition mentioned.

Fifth: The Petitioner George Oakley Yerks as the husband of the decedent Annie D. Yerks is entitled to the whole of her said estate.

Sixth: Decedent was not given any power of disposition of property by the Will of any other person.

Seventh: That prior to her death, decedent made no transfer or conveyance of her property, real or personal, or of any interest therein, in this State or elsewhere, by deed, grant, bargain, sale or gift, in contemplation of death, or intended to take effect or enjoyment after the death of said decedent.

Eighth: That all persons who are interested in said other than the petitioner estate/and who are entitled to notice of all proceedings here in, and their post office address are as follows:

State Tax Commission of the State of New York
80 Center Street
New York City, N. Y.

Ninth: That no previous application has been made for an Order declaring the property of this Estate to be exempt from Transfer Tax.

WHEREFORE, deponent prays for an Order declaring exempt from tax, under the laws relating to Taxable Transfer of Property, the property of which said decedent died seized and possessed as herein stated.
