SOLD HIS WIFE FOR $2.

The Purchaser Has a Receipt and the Woman is Satisfied.

Stamford, Nov. 20.—Ernest McCormick says that Edward Yerks, a well known Pound Ridge man, having become tired of his wife after two years, has sold her and her child to Edward Simonds, a White Plains young man, for $2.

McCormick saw the receipt which Simonds gave. Simonds first offered $1, but that was refused, and Yerks's terms of $2 were accepted. Simonds and the woman are reported perfectly satisfied with the bargain.
