

Beneficial, owner of the store.

A man and a girl are recovering in Norwegian Hospital from burns of the face and hands received yesterday when they went to the rescue of Mrs. Anna Marks, 43, of 257 16th st., when her clothing caught fire from a backdraft in a gas range. They were her husband, Fred, and a daughter, Elizabeth. They were aided by another daughter, Sara, who was slightly burned. Mrs. Marks was only slightly hurt.
