
Man Killed by a Train at Mount Kisco.

MOUNT KISCO, N. Y., July 22.—John Cutler, a farmhand employed on the place of James Woods, was run down and killed on the Harlem Railroad to-day not far from his home. The body lay for fourteen hours before a Coroner arrived to view it and permit its removal.

The New York Times

Published: July 23, 1900

Copyright © The New York Times