

Publication: Brooklyn Eagle; Date: Dec 31, 1849; Section: None; Page: 2

MARRIED,

At Tarrytown, N. Y., on the 28th inst., by the Rev. A. P. Buel, WILLIAM W. YERKS to ELIZABETH CATHARINE, eldest daughter of Benjamin Meeker, Esq., all of the same place.

DIED,

In this city, on the 28th instant, suddenly, JANE ELLIOTT, aged 46 years.

Democratic Republican General COMMITTEE of the County of Kings.—The meeting of the Committee will take place at D. Colgan's, 196 Fulton street, on TUESDAY, Jan. 8th, at 6 o'clock, P. M. Punctual attendance is requested. The members elected to the Committee for 1850, are notified to attend at 6½ o'clock, at the same place, for the purpose of organizing.

By order, T. G. BERGEN, Chairman.
Wm. Hinman, Secretary. d31 8t

JAMES WALTERS' Fashionable Hair-Cutting Saloon, No. 173 MYRTLE AVENUE.

The proprietor respectfully informs his friends and the public that he has taken the store, No. 173 Myrtle avenue, where he professes to cut Gentlemen's Hair and trim their Whiskers in the newest and most fashionable style. He feels capable of, and intends to give, so far as in his power lies, satisfaction to those who may think fit to patronize him. He has constantly on hand a varied stock of choice perfumery; and trusts, by unremitting attention, to meet the favors of the public. Don't forget No. 173 Myrtle avenue. d31 1f

Mayor's Office, Dec. 29th, 1849.

The Mayor of the city will be in his office, at the City Hall, Tuesday, Jan. 1, 1850, from 11 o'clock, A. M., to 2 o'clock, P. M., to receive his fellow-citizens, and to interchange the usual courtesies of the season. d29 2t