THOMAS CONDOS ARRESTED FOR SELLING ON SUNDAY.

Refused to Close For Officer Gavin Sunday—Will Test Law.

Thomas Condos, who refused to close up his store Sunday afternoon when ordered to do so by Officer Michael Gavin, was arrested yesterday afternoon by Officer Gavin on a warrant charging him with a violation of the Sunday laws. He furnished a bond of $200 and was released from custody.

Condos conducts two candy stores in this city, one at 599 Main street and another on Asylum street, known as the Boston Candy Kitchen. He will fight the case with a view of testing the laws relating to Sunday closing.

It is said that the courts have already decided other cases of this kind, declaring that the law is valid.
